Perhaps the local of the Milwaukee News cannot give his views of skating, and then again perhaps he can. It is the best pen and ink portrait of skating that we have seen:

"Right beneath one of our windows, from mora till inidinglit, we see young atters and olisters twisting their legs into all conecivable shapes, skating up and down the river merry as lambs. We cannot pick up a paper, but an article on "skating" meets the eye. Beverybody says it is fun, and that's all "everybody says it is fun, and that's all "everybody" knows about it, for we have tried it. Last night, about gaslight time, after reading a glowing description of life on skates, we prepared for our first attempt, and sullied torth to join the merry crowd. We had on a pair of stoga boots, trouser legs tucked inside, a robert-tailed coat and white hat. We went down on the ice, and gave a boy two shillings in good coin of the realm, for the use of his constant of the control of the realm, for the use of his constant of the control of the realm, for the use of his end of the control of the realm, for the use of his end of the control of the realm, for the use of his end of the control of the realm, for the use of his end of the control of the realm, for the use of his end of the control of the realm, for the use of his end of the control of the realm, for the use of his end of the control of the realm, for the use of his end of the control of the realm, for the use of his end of the control of the realm, for the use of his end of the control of the realm, for the use of his end of the control of the realm for the use of his end of the control of the realm for the property condess at laft the profit we have herefore publication, this day entered in the above entitled cause.

Encouraged by the sight of some ladies on the bridge looking at the skaters, we struck out. A slant to the right with the right foot—a slant to the left with the left foot—and just then we saw something on the ice, and stooped over to pick it up! On our feet again—two slants to the right and one to the left, accompanied with a loss of confidence. Another stride with the right foot, and we sat down with a fearful rapidity, and very little, if any, elegance! How that shock went through our system, and up and down our spinal column. Lightning couldn't have corkscrewed it down a greased saplin with greater speed nor more exhilerating effect. Boarding house butter nor warranty deed, could not have struck stronger than we did—and a dozen ladies looking at us—and our "fissured" pants!

"Hallo, old cock, sang out that ragged imp again, and we there helpless! Soon we got up and made another trial, with better success. Perhaps we had skated in our peculiar style fifteen feet, when a blundering chap came up behind, and we sat down with our tired

How cold the ice was there, too! Every spot where we made our debut on the ice—oh! how cold it was! Our bear skin drawers were no protection at all! We tried again, for the papers all say it is fun, and down came our Roman-grecian nose, an the cold julep material, and the little drops of crimson ran down our shirt bosom, and on to the cold ice. Once more we tried skating—made for the shore—sat down and counted damages. Two shillings in cash thrown away. Seven latteral and one "fronteral" bumps on the ice. If you catch us on the smoothe, glossy, chilly, freezing, treacherous, deceitful, slippery, and slip-uppery ice again, you'll know it. If any one ever hears of our skating again, they will please draw on us at sight, for the bivalves and accompanying documents. We have got through skating. It's a humbug. It's a vexation of spirit, of business, of flesh, and tearer of trowsers! It's a head-bumping, back-aching, leg-wearying, dangerous institution, and we warn people against skating. We tried it, and shant be able to walk for a month. Skating clubs are a humbug, and all the rascally youngsters wish to get the indies at it, that they may see—if they too, don't say "the ice is dreadful cold?" It's nothing to us, but the ladies will do as well to let skates alone, nnless they are younger and more elastic than are we. A CHANGE:

After mature deliberation; feeling assured it is the only true and correct system of doing business, and one that can be made to pay if properly conducted, and the only system where justice is done to the burer as well as the seller, when the purchaser who pays CASH is not compelled to pay for the goods of his neighbor who never pays his debts, that this is so there can be no mistake, the merchant who sells on time must be paid for the bad debts he contracts, the Cash and and prompt paying customers are the victims.

We do not say we intend to sell our goods at prices less than they cost us, but this we do say, and intend to maintain it, that we will sell our goods at half the profit we have heretofore charged, and at half profit they can be bought for in the State of Michigan of merchants who sell on time.
